WHATS HAPPENING

As Rotarians start a new Rotary year, are we prepared to do what is necessary to make this world polio free? For many of us, traveling to a foreign country is not in the cards. So what can we do? Obviously we need to help provide the funding needed to get those polio drops to those countries which haven’t quite been able to get polio eradicated. Does your club have something in place to raise funds for PolioPlus? What a great way to “Be a Gift to the World.”

It breaks my heart to see photographs of those adults and children who were infected before Rotary arrived to immunize them. The photo below might have been taken a long time ago but if we don’t do our part, this could happen again.

Yours in Rotary Service,
Mary Johnston
District Secretary

THE GAVEL IS PASSED IN LEWISTOWN

Today our Rotary ship enters a new port as Pete Ort reports for duty as our new president.

Installation of the new President and officers and board members was conducted by District Secretary Mary Johnston. President Pete announced that he has already submitted his goals for achieving a Presidential Citation for our Club and that he has put together a roadmap toward that end and is counting on our support in working toward that goal.

Following the swearing in of the President, officers, and board members, now Past-president Dan Searer was thanked for his service to the Club, presented with his President's pin, and relieved of his duties as President.

Thank you Dan Searer for leading us with wisdom during your year as President. Thank you Pete Ort for taking on the responsibility of leading our Club. Thank you officers and board members for taking on positions of responsibility with our Club. And finally, thank you Mary Johnston for presiding once again at our installation and visiting with us.

JOHNSONBURG ROTARY CLUB NEWS

Rotary Foreign Exchange student from France, Agathe Dijoud says good-bye to the Johnsonburg Rotary Club.

Agathe Dijoud arrived in Johnsonburg in August 2014, and has been a student at the Johnsonburg Area High School for this year. She participated in basketball, softball and tennis. As a Rotary student, she was also able to meet other students from many other foreign countries. She thanked the Johnsonburg Rotary Club for making her dream come true by coming to America. Rotarians wish her well in the future.

Sue Evans Presented Her Book To Rotary

Bradford Rotarians Sue and George Evans visited Johnsonburg Rotary to tell the story of her book, "Don't Write The Obituary Yet". The book is the story of Sue's battle with ovarian cancer and the humorous way in which she dealt with several aspects of the fight.

For Susan Evans, a persistently swollen ankle that defied explanation was the only symptom that would ultimately lead a year later to a much more serious diagnosis. The retired high school English teacher from Bradford, Pa. was given shoe inserts and elastic socks to no avail. Finally, a doctor suspected something else was happening, and, after a scan, in June 2012, Susan was told she had ovarian cancer.

"They said, 'You have a 25-pound tumor,'" Susan said. "That's as big as a Thanksgiving turkey!" A family doctor then told her she had six months to live. Much of the information was incorrect. The tumor was 2.5 pounds - someone had misread the chart, and Susan has long outlived the early prognosis and is in remission. But after those early predictions, she said, "I'm going to Pittsburgh," where she and her husband George, the retired Chair of the Mass Communications Department at St. Bonaventure University, kept a home in Cranberry. For the Evans, that was the turning point. At Magee-Womens Hospital, she was under the care of Dr. Tom Krivak, and during his treatment of her, she decided to do two things - write a book about her experience and set up a fund at The Pittsburgh Foundation to help Dr. Krivak further his research of ovarian cancer.

Susan collaborated with Dr. Krivak on the book, "Don't Write the Obituary Yet," and while Susan doesn't expect it to be a big money maker, she wants any proceeds to help Dr. Krivak, now at West Penn Hospital. In order to do that, she researched the best place to set up a fund. After a few hospital-related foundations weren't a good fit, Susan contacted The Pittsburgh Foundation. And just before Christmas, she and George started the Evans-Krivak Gynecological Cancer Research & Education Fund with a $10,000 gift.

For Susan, increasing research of ovarian cancer is vitally important. "It doesn't get the money that breast and lung cancer and others do - it's the orphan cancer. It needs to be brought to the forefront. About 14,000 women a year die from it, and it's very hard to diagnose. There's a blood test, and it's not foolproof, but that's all there is. Dr. Krivak does research, and he teaches medical research. And I feel in my heart that if someone saves your life, you owe them something."

Induction Of Officers For 2015-2016 At Rotary

With the Rotary year ending on June 30th the new officers were inducted on Monday evening. Past President Diane Murphy passed the gavel to President Pam Diulio at the end of the meeting.
CLEARFIELD BERRIES & BLOOM FESTIVAL ON JUNE 27, 2015

Clearfield Rotarians participated in Clearfield's "Berries and Bloom" festival on Saturday June 27, 2015. Originally scheduled as a street festival, organizers were able to relocate the displays and vendors to the Clearfield Fairgrounds Expo II Building due to the forecast for heavy rains all day. Despite the change in venue and the nasty weather the turnout for the event was very good.

The club displayed information on its activities, the Polio Plus campaign, and Rotary's involvement with ShelterBox Program. Donations were accepted for PolioPlus, and the ShelterBox Program.

Special Thanks to Kelly Wike and her husband Jeff who traveled to Clearfield Friday night to demonstrate how to set up and tear down the ShelterBox. After the demonstration, Joe and Peggy White hosted a cookout for the group.

The club did receive some interest and referrals for potential new members and will be making follow up contacts.

SHEPHERDSTOWN ROTARIANS DONATE $250 TO AMERICAN CONSERVATION FILM FESTIVAL

The Rotary Club of Shepherdstown has donated $250 to the American Conservation Film Festival.

Based in Shepherdstown, the Festival is dedicated to promoting films that inspire people to become engaged in natural resources conservation. This year's festival dates are October 23-25 and November 1.

The donation was presented to Festival President Jeff Feldman at the Club's June 30 breakfast meeting at Shepherdstown's Bavarian Inn.

David Manthos, a member of the Club's International Service Committee, said it was being made in Feldman's honor, in recognition of his "service above self in the field of conservation."

SHEPHERDSTOWN ROTARY SPONSORS JULY 4 PARADE AND PICNIC

The historic town of Shepherdstown, WV held its ninth annual Independence Day parade and community picnic on Saturday, July 4.
In spite of a soggy start to the day the rain cleared out just in time to allow the parade and picnic to go forward in good order.

The crowds that turned out for both events seemed at least as large as last year's.

The parade included 65 units. That equaled the number of entries in the 2014 parade, which had set a new record. A wide variety of local organizations participated.

The picnic was held right afterwards, at the town's Morgan's Gove Park. Music was provided by two local bands: the Speakeasy Boys and the Gypsy Ramblers. There were lots of children's activities, including games and a water slide.

MARTINSBURG HOLDS ANNUAL PAUL HARRIS FELLOT RECOGNITION AND INSTALLATION DINNER

Over 105 people attended the Rotary Club of Martinsburg's annual Paul Harris Fellow Recognition & Installation Dinner at the Holiday Inn on June 18, 2015. Robin Zanotti was installed as President of the club for 2015-2016 and helped present awards.

The Charles Brown Rotarian of the Year Award was presented to Berniece Collis (Rotarian of the Year).

WILLIAMSPORT, MD ROTARY CLUB NEWS

June 25 was a big day for the Williamsport, MD Rotary Club. First, we were chartered in 1984 on one day removed from the earlier mentioned date. This year on 25 June, we rolled numerous events into one evening. Charter Night, Foundation Evening, Paul Harris Fellow Recognition, and recognition of officers for 2015-16. This family night outing occurred at the local Western Sizzlin Steakhouse. One of our members and owner hosted the event. The evening turned out to be very special in that four (4) of our members became Paul Harris Fellows. We are especially proud since every member of our club is now a Paul Harris Fellow. Officers for the coming year are as follows:

David Miller - President, George Stone - Vice President, Jay Frantz - Secretary, and Les Curry - Treasurer.

Our aim for the year is to have two speaker programs during each month and an activity each month. We have already helped with a local Carnival event. Some of our aims are to promote Rotary, our activities, and otherwise be as visible in the local community as possible. WE ARE WILLIAMSPORT, MD ROTARY.

GALETON CLUB NEWS

The Galeton Club continued to have excellent programs during June and July. The club heard Lael Eggler, owner of the Gaines Company, tell the history of the company, a major manufacturer of fishing lures located in Gaines, PA. Following the lecture, Lael conducted a tour of the manufacturing facility. We got several laughs on suggestive terminology of the fishing lure industry. We all received samples of the lures made there.

David Brooks, Executive Director of the Potter County Visitors Association spoke on the impact of tourism on Potter County's economy. David showed scenes from the 2011 Woodsmen's Show. He spoke of the success of their website, www.visitpottercounty.com.

Chip Harrison, State Parks Manager, spoke of the new state regulations that govern state parks and how they affect the Woodsmen's Show. Chip further added information on the Dark Sky Program at Cherry Springs State Park.

The annual Bocce tournament resulted in Buddy Sutton and Carl Ripley winning the 2015 event.

The highlights of the 2014-2015 Rotary year were presented by outgoing President Pete Folk. Incoming Assistant Governor, Bill Olivett and his wife were welcome guests.

BJ Lowther presented a program on the new Children's Dental Program provided by the Charles Cole Hospital.

Incoming President, John Ryan, conducted his first meeting with plans for the upcoming Woodsmen's Show on July 31, and August 1 and 2, as well as plans for the 85th Galeton Rotary Club's Anniversary celebration scheduled for October 29.

LEWISBURG SUNRISE HEARS ABOUT “PILL BOTTLE PROJECT”

Rachel Schade, a Milton 7th grade school student spoke about the "Pill Bottle Project" that collects empty pill bottles to be sent to Malawi at the Lewisburg Sunrise Rotary Club. She is a part of The Young Women Leadership Organization in the Milton School District. People of the outlying villages must travel distances for medical help. The medicines are often given to people wrapped in paper or envelopes and the medicine is easily lost when people travel back to the villages. The collection of empty pill bottles for use in Malawi helps to minimize the problem of lost medicines during return trips. This same larger group in the United States helps to build ecofriendly homes in underdeveloped countries.

FALCK HONORED AS ROTARY FOUNDATION LEVEL II MAJOR DONOR

Susana Falck, District 7360 Foundation Chair and member of the Muncy Rotary Club since 1999, was recently recognized by The Rotary Foundation as a Level II Major Donor. A Level II Major Donor is an individual who has contributed $25,000 to $49,999 to help fund humanitarian and educational Rotary Foundation global grants.

Neil McBeth, Zone 29 Rotary Foundation Regional Coordinator and Past District Governor of Ontario, Canada's District 6400, presented Falck with a Rotary Foundation crystal recognition and a pendant with two diamonds.

"Through her many years of active committed service and generous financial support of The Rotary Foundation, Susana has helped to transform countless dreams into splendid realities to resolve problems that affect mankind globally. She has specifically been instrumental in providing safe drinking water for more than 40 rural schools in Ecuador, ensuring that children in Ecuador and Nicaragua have access to quality basic education, improving essential medical services for pregnant women and the mentally challenged in Ecuador, and providing opportunities for vocational training in Ecuador and Nicaragua. The Rotary Foundation sincerely thanks Susana for her generosity which has touched and improved the lives of many individuals here and abroad,“ McBeth said.

Assisting with the presentation were John Smay, Muncy Rotary Club President and PDG Carl Askew, District 7360 Global Grants Coordinator.

A native of Ecuador and a naturalized United States citizen, Falck is the founder and a trustee of Sirviendo F.A. I.T. H. Foundation which serves needy families in the Andes of South America. She is a member and Eucharistic minister at St. Boniface Church in Williamsport where she also serves as International Mission Director, Liturgical Arts and Environmental Chair.

The Rotary Foundation, a not-for-profit corporation associated with Rotary International, supports humanitarian and educational programs to promote world peace and understanding. The Foundation is funded through voluntary contributions from Rotarians and friends who share its vision of a better world.

SHEPHERDSTOWN ROTARY CLUB HONORS TWO LOCAL COLLEGE STUDENTS
The Rotary Club of Shepherdstown has presented Paul Harris Awards to two local college students, Varun K. Menon and Syed R. Akhtar. Both are 2012 graduates of Martinsburg High School. Menon is currently a senior at the University of Pennsylvania. Akhtar is a senior at West Virginia University.

The Paul Harris Award is named for the individual who founded Rotary International in 1905, Paul Percy Harris (1868-1947).

It has been given to Menon and Akhtar in recognition of donations they have brought to Rotary International's End Polio campaign, which has long been a major Rotary priority.

The donations have come from a Martinsburg-based nonprofit charitable foundation the two young men established last year to promote children's health around the world, with a special focus on combating childhood epidemic diseases.

The foundation, the Arthur Guyton Foundation, is named in honor of the late Arthur Guyton (1919-2003), who overcame polio to become a leading medical researcher, educator and author. So far, the foundation has raised about $5,000 and donated $2,000 of that amount to the Rotary Polio campaign.

Currently, the foundation is expanding its portfolio to include a new, locally focused Community Health Initiative that will concentrate on promoting children's health in the Eastern Panhandle. This initiative will be named in honor of the late Dr. Francisco Sabado of Martinsburg (1943-2015), who was a member of the foundation's board and a mentor and friend to Menon and Akhtar. The initiative will be launched on August 8 at the First Annual Francisco Sabado Community Benefit Reception. The event will be held at The HUB Business Center in downtown Martinsburg from 6:00-9:00 p.m. All proceeds will support the initiative's programs.

To learn more about the foundation and its new initiative, go to its website at www.guytonfoundation.org.

Menon was the valedictorian his Martinsburg High School class. At Penn, he is a Dean's List student majoring in Diplomatic History. He has been very active in politics on campus and is a co-founder and former president of the university's Government and Politics Association, the largest civic and political organization on campus. He plans to attend medical school after graduation.

Akhtar is pursuing a degree in Mechanical and Aerospace Engineering and a minor in Computer Science at WVU. He has also been very active in politics. He currently serves as State Chairman of the West Virginia Federation of College Republicans, and he is the president and founder of WVU's Chapter of the Government and Politics Association.

HANCOCK ROTARY DONATES TO SUPPORT DOEY’S HOUSE

Neal Glessner, as a tribute to his mother Doris "Doey" Glessner, is committed to raising funds to help Hospice of Washington County build the county’s first hospice house. His presentation on the subject to the Hancock Rotary Club was emotional, educational and engaging.

Mr. Glessner shared how his mother, in her last days, could have benefited from the compassionate services and dignified environment provided at a hospice house. He lamented that they were not available to his mother but vowed to work with others to build Doey’s House, the first hospice house in Washington County.

The Hancock Rotary Club known for its support of projects that are “beneficial to all concerned”, was inspired by Mr. Glessner’s talk. The Club recently donated $500 donation to support Doey’s House so that Washington County residents in need of in-patient pain and symptom management, respite services, or a place to be cared for with compassion and dignity in their last days will no longer need to leave the county.
ROTARY CLUB OF HOLLIDAYSBURG
DISTRIBUTES $17,795

On June 2, 2015, the Rotary Club of Hollidaysburg announced the distribution of $17,795 during fiscal year 2014 – 2015, to local and international charities.

Representatives from recipient organizations joined the Hollidaysburg Rotarians at a celebratory event, held at Marzoni’s Brick Oven & Brewing in Duncansville, to receive the donations.

Local recipients included the Hollidaysburg Community Partnership, Hollidaysburg Area Public Library, Hollidaysburg Area YMCA, Blair Concert Chorale, Griffith Family Foundation, Young Readers Council, Hollidaysburg Alumni Community Chorus, Blair Hope for Families, and many others.

Donations to support international charities included a project in Rwanda by Penn State Altoona Enactus, an international non-profit organization that brings together student, academic and business leaders who are committed to using the power of entrepreneurial action to transform lives and shape a better more sustainable world.

DONATIONS, AWARDS CONCLUDE YEAR FOR DOWNTOWN LOCK HAVEN CLUB

The Rotary Club of Downtown Lock Haven was able to give $1,500 to favorite charities and partner organizations at the end of the Rotary year.

Last summer, club members chose their top two worthwhile causes: Ross Library, which is the public library system in Clinton County; and Horses of Hope which provides horse-related therapy and riding lessons.

Cindy Love, left, then-director of Horses of Hope, receives a $500 donation and a certification of appreciation for the non-profit agency from the Rotary Club of Downtown Lock Haven. With her is Jennifer Gill, center, a Horses of Hope client, and Suzanne Foust, new president of the Rotary club. Cindy is also a Rotarian in the club.

After a year that included several community-supported fundraisers, the club presented $500 and a certificate of appreciation to each of its favorite organizations.

Other end-of-the-year donations were given to the Salvation Army's local food programs and to Covenant United Methodist Church which hosted the club’s successful Festival of Trees event at holiday time.

The Rotarians also continued their tradition of honoring two Central Mountain High School students and two Lock Haven University students for outstanding community service. Each student received a certificate of excellence and a gift card.

Past President Gail Nestlerode hosted a picnic on the last day of the Rotary year, and the club made one more donation, to the Lock Haven Area Shoe Bank in honor of outgoing president Wendy Stiver.

Also at the picnic, treasurer Jeanne Baker was surprised and pleased to learn her fellow club members had selected her as Rotarian of the Year.
The Rotary Club of Downtown Lock Haven recently held their induction ceremonies and we are pleased to share our newest officers and special acknowledgements. Our team is geared up for another successful year in new ideas, new members and awesome events.

WILLIAMSPORT, PA CELEBRATES 100th ANNIVERSARY

Williamsport, PA Rotary Club celebrated its 100th Anniversary on June 24 at the Genetti Hotel. 85 Rotarians, Former Rotarians, Family Members and Guests attended this momentous occasion.

Dr. Davie Jane Gilmour, President of Penn College, was presented with the "Service Above Self" Award. She is no stranger to hard work and dedication in serving the Williamsport, PA Community.

Nick Yost (pictured on the left) was awarded the Rotarian of the Year Award. He is pictured with Rotarian, Dave Troisi. Nick was honored for his Rotary service and work in instilling a renewed energy into the Club. While he has only been a member for 2 years, he quickly has worked to share with the community just what Rotary can do. The Club's successful year and accomplishments would not have been possible without Nick's leadership, commitment and support.

Williamsport, PA, also awarded 2 Presidential Citations to Marc Schefsky and Misty Trowbridge.

Marc organized a first time fundraiser of an indoor mini golf tournament. This family friendly fundraiser netted approximately $6k for the Club. Pictured with Marc is outgoing President, Lori Strimple.

Misty is credited for the increase in the Club's membership. Misty is pictured with Membership Chair, Nick Yost.

HAGERSTOWN CLUB NEWS

Hagerstown Rotary Club reached a milestone of 100 years and wrapped up a year of increased international service and generosity under President Jason Rappaport. A water project in Mapakhama School, near White River, South Africa was completed. The project was made possible due to the persistent leadership of the club's international committee chairman, Terry King. The Hagerstown Rotary Club donated $3,750 USD, the Rotary Club of Coto De Caza/Rancho Santa Margarita Del Sol, CA donated $3,750 USD Club and the Rotary Club of Waynesboro PA donated $500 USD. In addition, the local White River club handled the logistics and will provide continued maintenance assistance, as needed, to the school to maintain the well. This water is at the site of a school and should easily provide enough water to meet its future needs.

Locally, the club and its Foundation donated $8000 for the third grade student dictionary project (in cooperation with other Washington County, MD Rotary Clubs). Agencies were awarded $84,890 in grants. Funding was made possible due to the generosity of individual members and active fundraising that included the very successful annual Bull and Oyster Roast and golf tournament.

Photo: John Latimer (with gavel) and Jason Rappaport. The transition of club leadership is now with John Latimer, who has a family tradition of Rotary service. Latimer said, “The Hagerstown Rotary Club has an exceptionally rich history of service to our community and beyond and I am very proud to be a part of this organization. For four generations, members of my family have been honored to serve the Hagerstown Rotary mission. I look forward to continuing that tradition and thank the Club for allowing me to do so.”

Second Annual BrewBQue
Saturday, August 8\textsuperscript{th}
Lewisburg, PA

Sunset Rotary is looking for contestants for the second annual “Best Barbeque Contest.” Entries will be judged by a panel of seven celebrity judges. Criteria will include overall taste, tenderness and presentation. Registration is open to amateur and professional chefs. For this event, barbeque is defined as “food prepared with a dry spice rub, sauce or combination of both.” Winner will receive $100 and one awesome looking winner’s plaque!

Food Vendors are also being sought to set up their food for sale during the day. Activities will include live musical entertainment throughout the day, town sidewalk sales, childrens carnival with games & activities, and back by popular demand – a Beer Garden with tastings of beers, wines and distilled spirits. Are you a sport? The day starts off with the Lewisburg Triathalon. Registration is also on line at www.lewisburgpa.com.
